Mysuru, Feb. 8 (RK&BS)- A day after the conclusion of its zone-wise Adalats yesterday (Feb. 7), Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) launched 'Mayor's Online Adalat' this morning.

It is a first-of-its-kind Adalat that can be accessed by people, who have been waiting to seek services even after filing the application. The service is available till Feb. 22 (Wednesday).

Mayor Shivakumar, the brain behind the Adalat initiative, explained that "Nowhere in the country, any other City Corporations have devised any such programme intended at making it easy for the people to air their grievances if any."

The dedicated staff at MCC will receive any queries and issue the acknowledgment also online. They will later forward the queries to respective nine zonal offices of MCC in the city, to look into them, added the Mayor.

The new facility will be beneficial especially for those having property in the city and settled in other parts of the State and country and even abroad, who can look for the service, without making any physical visit.

To avail of the service, the people should scan the QR code on http://bit.ly/MCCMayor

After scanning the code, they have to login through Google account and file their complaints.

It may be mentioned that the maiden MCC Adalat was held offline at its main office on Nov. 14, 2022. Later on Jan. 20, 2023, the zone-wise Adalat was launched, covering all the nine zonal offices, that concluded on Feb. 7.

Heritage Panel shoots down MCC's Fountain Circle plan

Elgin Fountain to be restored instead of beautification project worth Rs. 1.20 crore

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (RK&BCT)- A meeting of the Heritage Conservation Sub-Committee was held at the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage in the Exhibition Grounds premises yesterday that was chaired by Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra where a wide range of topics came up for discussion.

Prominent among them was the issue of MCC taking up the beautification of the heritage Fountain Circle at the entrance of Mysuru city from the Bengaluru side. The meeting directed the MCC to drop the beautification project and instead spend money to conserve the heritage structure.

The Committee members told the DC that this artistically designed fountain located at the Circle is one of the oldest fountains in Mysuru city and is of huge historic importance. It was initially erected at the present K.R. Circle and was called the Elgin Fountain.

The fountain was erected in honour of visit of Lord Elgin, the Viceroy to Mysuru on November 20, 1895, to console the royal family on the bereavement of Maharaja Chamaraja Wadiyar on Dec. 28, 1895, Prof. N.S. Rangaraju, retired Professor of Ancient History and Archaeology, Mysore University, told the DC.

"The fountain was shifted from there to the present Dhanvanthri Road Circle where Dewan's Road meets after the statue of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar was installed at K.R. Circle. The fountain was again shifted from there to the present place on the Bengaluru-Mysuru Road and was named 'Rajendra Prasad Circle' to mark the maiden visit of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, the first President of India," Prof. Rangaraju explained.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

One major highlight of the Union budget which was presented last week was the high allocation for Indian Railways. The outlay of Rs. 2.4 lakh crore is the highest ever for the Railways. It is in line with the focus on infrastructure development in the budget and will go some way in making the "nation's lifeline" stronger, by improving the network and extending it to areas where it is not present. The Railways hold the prime position among all means of transport in the country, but it has suffered from underinvestment and poorly done investment in the past.

Investments have often been made on the basis of political considerations, too. Instead of bringing returns, this has led to wastage of public funds which could have been used more productively elsewhere. The quality of investment is as important as the volume of investment. The Railways has a special place in the infrastructure sector because it is more public than other modes of transport and operates big volumes. It is necessary to create new lines, augment existing lines and integrate the entire system better with other modes of transport. There are plans to redevelop stations and introduce new trains. It has been stated that the production of Vande Bharat trains will be ramped up and a new Vande Metro series will be introduced to connect short distance locations.

The first hydrogen train is proposed to be introduced later this year. Efficient rail services can push up economic growth, create employment, help to reduce pollution, and contribute to the transition to a net-zero economy. The higher allocation will hopefully have a positive impact in all these respects. — In Deccan Herald

Man spends $80 on 20 vacuum cleaners

Shanghai: A Chinese man recently purchased 20 robot vacuums online for an unbelievably low price and documented his experience on internet.

A decent robot vacuum in China costs around 1,000 Yuan ($145), with more advanced models costing several times that amount. So imagine finding a robot vacuum cleaner online for only 27 Yuan ($4). First, the Shanghai-based YouTuber unboxed one of the ultra-cheap vacuum robots and attempted to put it through its paces by vacuuming some pieces of paper on his desk. The end result was unimpressive. It not only sucked in one of the dozens of pieces of paper on the desk, but it also fell off. The man then tried a safer test, placing the vacuum in a large cardboard box and cleaning it up with torn tissues. The vacuums kept getting stuck in a corner and did little vacuuming. What scraps it did manage to remove became entangled in its rotating brushes. After concluding that his 20 vacuum robots were nothing more than toys, he decided to unleash them all at once in his home.

Man gets tattooed by a monkey

Venezuelan: A Venezuelan artist and social media influencer recently generated controversy online by letting himself be tattooed by a monkey.

Funky Matas is no stranger to tattoos. In fact, he holds a Guinness Record for the most signatures tattooed on his back, over 220 of them, but his latest stunt can be described as unusual, even for him. News outlets across South America have been reporting that the Venezuelan-born influencer trained a small monkey to handle a tattoo gun and then let himself be tattooed by the animal, a first-of-its-kind experiment.

"The intention with this tattoo was to create the logo of NFTs project I started with my partner Andy Williams, The F8 Club," Funky Matas wrote.

City bus connectivity to layouts on Dr. Rajkumar Road needs improvement

Sir,

The city bus connectivity to layouts on Dr. Rajkumar Road needs improvement with more buses and connectivity to Suburban Bus Stand as well as the main Railway Station.

Apart from it, the bus routes also need to be rerouted to facilitate better connectivity. The buses from Satagalli Bus Stand to City Bus Stand (CBS) must move straight towards Suburban Bus Stand and take left at Post Office, so that it will save both distance and time.

Likewise, buses must ply straight on Mahadeshwara Road instead of Circling Vinaya Marga at Siddarthanagar. City buses can ply straight up to Outer Ring Road till Doctor's Layout, thus improving city bus connectivity.

Over 19,000 cases listed, says District Judge Sangreshi

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (MTY & BS)- Principal District and Sessions Court Judge G.S. Sangreshi has said that the National Lok Adalat is scheduled on Feb.11 to dispose of pending cases at the Courts in Mysuru City and Taluks, through mutual agreement.

Addressing the press meet at the Malalavadi Court Complex in Jayanagar yesterday, District Judge Sangreshi said that "A total of 1,11,492 cases including 59,872 Civil and 62,403 Criminal cases are pending at City and Taluk Courts, and 34,739 cases among them are liable for settlement through mutual agreement and 15,852 among them are already identified."

The cases entitled for settlement are as follows: Motor vehicle accident - 3,949 cases, criminal cases - 2,306 and cheque bounce cases - 22,649. Principal District and Sessions Court Judge G. S. Sangreshi addressing the press meet yesterday as Senior Judge Devaraj Bhute looks on.

The Adalat will be largely beneficial as the cases can be settled in a quick time and less expense. The significance of decree passed in the cases settled at Adalat is equal to the Court judgement. Apart from saving time, the relationship among the litigants will remain good. There is no need to pay the Court fee and litigants can directly attend the Adalat. Once the cases are settled, 100 percent of Court fees will be returned to the parties. However, there is no option for appeal in these cases, added District Judge Sangreshi.

Reacting to media queries, Judge Sangreshi said "If a Court is burdened with over 2,000 cases, there is a provision to propose for new Court. There are requirements of three each of Senior and Junior Grade Judges and one Court to handle Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) cases and proposals will be submitted in this regard." Out of 25,74,522 pending cases of traffic violations booked by Mysuru City Police, a fine amount of Rs. 1,45,26,500 has been collected from 68,758 cases. The 50 percent rebate in fine amount is available till Feb. 11 and offenders can make use of the benefit. They have to pay full fine after that period, he added.

Armed men rob city couple on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway

- Nagaraju, wife Jayashree relieved of Rs 3.81 lakh worth valuables
- They are residents of Ramakrishna Nagar 'E & F' Block
- Complaint lodged at Mandya Rural Police Station

Mysuru, Feb.8 (SBD&BS)- Even as the newly built 10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway is set for a formal opening soon, a couple from Mysuru was allegedly robbed of their valuables and cash all worth Rs. 3.81 lakh near Mallaiahanadoddi Bore in Mandya district on the Expressway on Feb. 6.

58-year-old N. Nagaraju, a resident of 'E & F' Block, Ramakrishna Nagar in city and a teacher at Government High School, Railway Workshop Colony, Mysuru and his wife L. Jayashree are those couple who were robbed by a two-member gang of armed robbers in the wee hours of Monday (Feb.6). The couple lodged a complaint later in the day at 12.30 pm at Mandya Rural Police Station.

The couple's son M.N. Madan, who is employed in Bengaluru had come to Mysuru on Feb. 3. He along with his parents had gone to his wife's place at Hiriyur in Chitradurga District on Saturday (Feb.4), for the naming ceremony of his child. After the ceremony, Madan, dropped his wife and kid at his parents' home in Mysuru and returned to Bengaluru.

On Sunday (Feb. 5), Nagaraju and Jayashree (Madan's parents) drove to Bengaluru to drop their daughter-in-law and grandchild at their son's house at Anjanapura in J.P. Nagar there. They reached Bengaluru at 5 pm and started their return journey, after having dinner at 10.30 pm.

In his complaint, Nagaraju has alleged that "Myself along with my wife had gone to Bengaluru. We were driving back home from Bengaluru in our car, when we stopped the vehicle near Mallaiahanadoddi Bore at about 1.10 am. I went out to attend nature's call and was washing my face, when two strangers aged about 28 to 30 years came near the vehicle. One of them pushed me towards the driver's seat and pulled the key from the car. He sat on the rear seat and held a knife on my neck, while another threatened my wife with a dragon weapon. As my wife screamed, the assailant warned of hitting her and threatened to get rid of us, if we don't hand over the valuables."

Najaraju further stated that they were constricted from seeking help out of fear though there were vehicles moving constantly on the same stretch of the highway.

"They later snatched 20 grams gold chain with a pendant weighing one gram, finger rings weighing 25 grams and Rs. 25,060 cash from me (Rs 60 from shirt pocket and Rs 25,000 from the trouser) and a gold mangalya chain weighing 67 grams from my wife, all totalling 92 grams. The total worth of valuables including cash is Rs 3,81,060," he added.

Nagaraju further alleged that the robber, who had held his wife, came out of the car, closed the door with his leg and jumped over the fence while the other who had held him, returned the key asking him to start the car and later got down. The robber warned Nagaraju not to stop the car for atleast 50 kms, besides threatening that the car would be under the watch of his accomplices, who would kill them if they stopped.

The petrified Nagaraju, drove the car till Manipal Hospital Junction (formerly Columbia Asia Hospital) on Mysuru- Bengaluru Expressway that marks the entry to Mysuru City, before stopping there. He later called his relatives over phone and narrated the incident. They advised him to go home and approach the Police later.

A complaint was lodged at Mandya Rural Police Station on Monday (Feb.6). Following the complaint by Nagaraju, Mandya Rural Police registered a robbery case under IPC Section 394. They (Police) conducted a spot mahazar and have launched a hunt to nab the robbers.

Man sentenced to life imprisonment for killing wife

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (SBD&KS)- City's 5th Additional District and Sessions Court has sentenced a man to life imprisonment after he was found guilty of murdering his wife.

The man, who was sentenced is Siddaraju, a resident of Matageri village in H.D. Kote taluk. He was accused of murdering his wife Sahana alias Puttatejamma.

Sahana, daughter of Jayamma of Katur village, was given in marriage to Siddaraju on May 29, 2012. All was fine for about five months after marriage and later, Siddaraju began to pick up fights with Sahana for petty reasons. A few years later, Siddaraju began to come home drunk and harass Sahana mentally besides assaulting her. Though Sahana's mother had advised Siddaraju many times, he did not mend his ways following which Sahana's mother took her home. But Siddaraju began to go there and fight with them.

On the night of Aug. 5, 2018, Siddaraju picked up a fight and the family members had calmed him. But at about 4.30 am on Aug. 6, 2018, Siddaraju picked up a fight with Sahana, accused her of having an illicit affair and hit her on the head with a wooden article causing serious injuries to her.

Sahana, who had sustained serious injuries was rushed to H.D. Kote Hospital and was later shifted to K.R. Hospital in Mysuru, where she succumbed to injuries on Aug. 10.

A case was registered against Siddaraju and also against his (Siddaraju) brother and sister-in-law for encouraging Siddaraju at Hullahalli Police Station. The then Hullahalli Circle Inspector M.L. Shekar, who conducted investigation, had submitted a charge-sheet to the Court.

Fifth Additional District and Sessions Court Judge Mallikarjun, who took up the case, heard the arguments from both the sides, found Siddaraju guilty of the crime and sentenced him to life imprisonment besides imposing a fine of Rs. 17,000. As there was no witness, Siddaraju's brother and sister-in-law were acquitted.

Public Prosecutor Nagappa C. Naakman argued on behalf of the Government.

Decomposed carcass of tiger found in lake

Gundlupet, Feb. 8- A decomposed carcass of a tiger has been found floating in Malliahnakatte Lake on the outskirts of Chowdahalli in Kundakere Range of Bandipur Forest in the taluk.

It is suspected that the tiger may have drowned about three to four days ago and the exact reason for its death is yet to be known.

A farmer, who had taken his cattle to the lake, found the body of the tiger floating in it and informed the Forest officials, who reached the spot and conducted an inspection.

Meanwhile, villagers took the Forest officials to task for not responding to their complaint. They said that tigers and leopards were attacking their livestock and also wild elephants were destroying the standing crops. Despite lodging complaints, the Forest officials had not responded to them and now, a tiger's body has been found floating in the lake, they added.

108 'Namma Clinics' launched in Bengaluru

Additional 195 Namma Clinics across State

Bengaluru, Feb. 8 (Agencies)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai yesterday simultaneously launched 108 'Namma Clinics' in Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) limits.

Bommai

Bommai inaugurated one such clinic in the Mahalakshmipura Ward of Mahalakshmi Layout.

The clinics, functioning as urban health and wellness centres, are aimed at heralding a new era in primary healthcare, officials said. The centres provide comprehensive primary healthcare to the poor, vulnerable and underprivileged sections in the urban areas, officials said, adding that a total of 438 similar clinics are being opened across the State.

In December last, the Chief Minister opened 100 clinics at a function held at Bairadevarakoppa in Dharwad. "Namma Clinic is a revolutionary step. Earlier, there used to be consulting doctors, this concept has by and large gone, and now if anything happens, the poor will have to go to big hospitals and are deprived of primary healthcare, so the Government has taken this initiative by including private clinics into the ambit," Bommai said.

Speaking to reporters after the launch, he said besides health check-up, tests would also be done and medicines given free of cost at the clinics, which has tele-consultation facility too, he said. Under the National Urban Health Mission, there is, at present, a primary health centre for every 50,000 people, officials said.

Under the grant of the 15th Finance Commission, the Government is setting up one primary health centre to cater to 15,000-20,000 people in urban areas, they said. Out of the 438 'Namma Clinics,' 243 would be in BBMP and the rest 195 in districts, they added.

Health & Family Welfare and Medical Education Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar said, the clinics are designed to provide universal and comprehensive primary healthcare in urban areas. Referral facility is also available and patients requiring major treatment would be referred to secondary and tertiary centres. This would not only reduce the cost of treatment but also decentralise healthcare service, he said.

According to officials, each clinic would have one doctor, one nursing staff, one lab technician, and one worker.

"Referral facilities will also be available and patients requiring higher treatment will be referred to secondary and tertiary centres. This will not only reduce the cost of treatment but will also decentralise the healthcare services," he added.

Totally, packages for antenatal, postnatal care, adolescent care, immunisation, family planning, fertility, communicable diseases management, general and minor injuries, preventive care for NCDs, oral care, eye care, ENT, mental health, geriatric care and laboratory service would be available. Wellness activities like yoga and referral services would be available, too, they said.

'Namma Clinics' are open from 9 am to 4.30 pm from Mondays to Saturdays.

Heritage Panel shoots down MCC's Fountain Circle plan

The MCC is planning to beautify this Circle at an estimated cost of Rs. 1.20 crore. The Heritage Committee expressed their concern over the MCC move and suggested that the Circle should be conserved for future generations.

Responding to the demand, DC Dr. Rajendra asked the MCC to drop the proposal for the beautification of the Fountain Circle and instead conserve it as-is and preserve its heritage value.

Maharani Statue at Millennium Circle

The Committee members also suggested the installation of a statue of Maharani Kempananjammani Vani Vilasa Sannidhana at Millennium Circle (LIC Circle) in Bannimantap. Maharani Kempananjammani Vani Vilasa Sannidhana is the wife of Maharaja Chamarajendra Wadiyar X and the mother of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar.

The members felt that the statue will be a befitting tribute to the visionary Maharani who initiated several welfare measures including the construction of Victoria Hospital in Bengaluru, the present Mysore Palace and the Shivanasamudra Hydroelectric Power Project.

It may be mentioned here that in 2018, the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), under the Chairmanship of D. Dhruvakumar wanted to install the statue of the queen in the Millennium Circle but the project did not see the light of day. The MUDA had even prepared a Detailed Project Report (DPR) on this.

The DC asked the MCC to take the DPR from MUDA and prepare another project proposal as per the suggestions discussed at the meeting. Prof. Rangaraju suggested that sculptor Arun Yogiraj, who sculpted the Adi Shankaracharya statue at Kedarnath and the statue of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose at India Gate in New Delhi, should be given the task of sculpting the Maharani's statue.

After the meeting, the DC, the members of the Conservation Sub-Committee and officials visited the Wellington House on Irwin Road near Sub-Urban Bus Stand which houses the Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya (IGRMS). The Wellington House is undergoing restoration and the works have been taken up by the Department of Archaeology and Museums.

The DC was told that the restoration works are being taken up following all the guidelines of heritage conservation and this method must be followed while restoring all the other heritage buildings in the future.

Commissioner of Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage Devaraju, Deputy Director Manjula, MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, retired SJCE Principal and former VTU Dean Prof. Syed Shakeeb Ur Rahman, officers and engineers were present.

25 heritage buildings of 95 surveyed in Mysuru need urgent repairs

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (RK&BCT)- The ongoing survey of 131 heritage structures within the limits of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has taken into account the present condition of 95 heritage buildings and the survey of the remaining 36 will be completed within a month or so.

Rajendra at the meeting of the Heritage Conservation Sub-Committee held at the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage in Dasara Exhibition Grounds premises yesterday, Commissioner of Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage Devaraju said that 25 buildings surveyed so far need urgent repairs and restoration works.

After the survey, a report will be submitted to the DC to be sent to the State Government for further action. The DC is the Chairman of the District Heritage Committee.

The survey began on Oct. 12, 2022 as widespread rainfall caused damage to the buildings, many of which are already dilapidated. The buildings are being graded according to the norms specified in the Karnataka Municipal Corporation Model Building (Amendment) Bylaws- 2021.

The survey is being carried out by the Heritage Commissioner Devaraju, Deputy Director of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage Manjula, Member of District Heritage Committee Prof. N.S. Rangaraju, former VTU Dean Prof. Syed Shakeeb Ur Rahman, Joint Director of MCC Town Planning G. Venugopal, Assistant Director of Town Planning R. Ramya, Assistant Engineer R. # Mayor inspects plastic waste recycling plant

Seeks info about expanding scope to convert more single-use plastic into interlocks, pavers

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (BCT)- Mayor Shivakumar, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Health Officer Dr. D.G. Nagaraj and other officers on Tuesday visited the Jagruth Tech Plant at Vidyaranyapuram and inspected the process of converting waste plastic into recyclable products like interlocks, pavers, pavements and other eco-friendly and long-lasting items.

The firm is the authorised single-use plastic waste recycler and collector approved by the MCC and Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB). The firm is carrying out the recycling process at the Solid Waste Management Unit (Excel Plant) at Sewage Farm premises in Vidyaranyapuram.

The Mayor inspected the innovative solution to use single-use plastic waste to make interlock tiles or pavers that are stronger than cement. The pavers are affordable, have longevity and are environment friendly.

Dinesh Bopanna, one of the Directors of Jagruth Tech, told Star of Mysore that the Mayor was impressed with the facilities and the technology and asked if the same technology could be used on a larger scale to mitigate the waste disposal problem in Mysuru to a considerable extent.

"We told the Mayor that all manufactured plastics can be recycled but Low-Value Plastic or single-use plastic or non-recyclable plastic waste are meant to be used only once. Single-use plastics include multi-layered plastic, grocery bags, food packaging, straws, containers, cups and cutlery. We apprised the Mayor that there is a shortage of Low-Value Plastic as they are not supplied to Jagruth Tech," Dinesh said.

"We told the Mayor that only if we get used plastic waste from vendors and from other sources, such innovative items are made after the plastic is shredded. The Mayor examined the entire process of mixing and filling compressing to make tiles with a hydraulic machine," Dinesh added.

These interlocks can bear loads up to 60 tonnes and are more durable than cement bricks. They can resist temperatures up to 60 degrees Celsius. Also, they are fully recyclable and can be reused many times, the Mayor was told.

Assuring the firm that large quantities of Low-Value Plastic will be supplied to the firm for it to make pavers and interlock tiles, the Mayor said "The company is trying to make a dry waste collection system in a formal way by upcycling and providing end-of-life solutions for Low-Value Plastic."

Over 600 job aspirants attend Udyoga Mela at Maharani's Science College

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (PM&SSM)- Over 600 job aspirants attended the one-day Udyoga Mela (Job Fair), organised jointly by Maharani's Science College for Women, Mysuru and Samarthanam Trust for the Disabled, at the College premises on JLB Road here this morning.

Over 40 companies were present at the Mela to recruit the job aspirants. Fifteen classrooms were allotted for the companies to conduct face-to-face interview.

Department of Collegiate Education Join Director Dr. Lakshman Kulgod, who inaugurated the programme, said that Udyoga Mela was usually organised by private colleges, but in recent days the Government Colleges has started taking initiatives to organise Job Fair which is commendable.

"Students coming from rural places or those who are from economically weaker sections pursue their education at Government Colleges. Organising Udyoga Mela here will help those rural aspirants to find a job and build a promising future," he added and advised the children to make use of opportunities like this and also to be aware and updated towards Government facilities.

Samarthanam Trust Officer K. Sathish said, "The Trust was established 26 years ago by Dr. G.K. Mahantesha who is himself a specially-abled person. The Trust has 13 branches throughout the country and is actively engaged in social service. Every year, at least 6,000 differently-abled people get employed from the initiatives and activities we take up" and asked the young aspirants to make use the opportunity.

Maharani's Science College Principal Dr. D. Ravi presided over the event. Senior Journalist Amshi Prasanna Kumar was the chief guest. College Placement Cell Convenors Dr. Parashuram Murthy and Dr. K.U. Kiran, Samarthanam Trust Officer Chandrashekar and others were present on the occasion.

Jewellers offer boomerangs; Irked goldsmiths assault trio

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (RK&BS)- Three jewellers were injured after they were allegedly manhandled and assaulted by goldsmiths at Lashkar Mohalla in city on Monday. The trio were treated later at a hospital as outpatients.

Nutan, Chetan and Manoj are those jewellers who had to taste the wrath of goldsmiths who came in a group, for the offer on wastage, that did not go down well with the latter. The three, in a bid to lure the customers, had circulated pamphlets offering to design gold jewels with a wastage of four percent against normal practice of five percent wastage.

Enraged goldsmiths barged into the shop of Manoj on Irwin Road and picked up a wordy duel over the offer. They took severe exception to the offer, citing losses otherwise. Even as the other two jewellers — Nutan and Chetan — joined Manoj in defence, the irked goldsmiths, started manhandling, that later ended in some among them assaulting the trio in the melee, it is said.

Following a complaint by Nutan, Lashkar Police Inspector P.P. Santosh has registered a case and is investigating.

Ensure proper implementation of Child Adoption Plans: DC

Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra holding a progress review meeting of the District Child Protection Cell and other Child Committees at his office in city on Monday.

Mysuru, Feb. 8- Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra has called upon concerned authorities to ensure effective and proper implementation of Child Adoption Plans in the district.

He was speaking at the progress review meeting of the District Child Protection Cell and other Child Committees at his office here on Monday.

Noting that there are many children up for adoption in the district, Dr. Rajendra said that similarly, there are many parents and other adults who are ready for child adoption.

Stressing on the need for ensuring a permanent shelter and livelihood for such children, he underlined the responsibilities of Child Protection Cell and other concerned groups in the protection of rights of children.

Expressing concern that there is a possibility of children getting affected from their HIV positive parents, the DC said that top priority must be given for identifying such vulnerable children and get them tested and treated properly.

Pointing out that such families must be given a monthly financial assistance of Rs. 1,000, he said that the names of the dead must be dropped from the list, which must be revised periodically.

Referring to child marriages, the DC said that rural areas are more prone to child marriages and this is because of poverty and lack of education. Stating that the officials must keep a constant watch on school dropouts, he said that a follow up of such children will help in preventing child or under-age marriages.

Underlining the responsibilities of Anganwadi and ASHA Workers in detection and prevention of child marriages, Dr. Rajendra called upon the officials to be in touch with such workers for keeping a tab on child marriages.

Continuing, the DC said that as per available statistics, 699 children have dropped out of schools in the district. He asked the officials to trace the parents of such children and try to get the dropouts back in schools. Emphasising on the need for giving an opportunity for children to enjoy their childhood just like the privileged ones, he said that at the same time it is important to protect child rights.

Asking the officials to chalk out programmes for making the district child labour free this year, the DC instructed the Labour Department staff to track child labourers and rescue them.

Stating that the district is an important tourist destination and several children are found begging for alms from tourists at many spots, he directed the officials to hold counselling for such children and free them from beggary.

Senior Civil Judge Devaraj Bhute, who is also the Member-Secretary of District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Zilla Panchayat (ZP) CEO K.M. Gayathri, District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad, District Child Protection Officer Basavaraju and others were present.

Villagers contribute to restore Lalithadripura 'Panchayti Katte'

Mysuru, Feb. 8 (SBD&BCT)- The 'Nyaya Panchayti' system (Panchayti Katte) played a major role in solving disputes before the Courts came into existence and their role is very necessary even for today's life to settle family and local property disputes through mediation.

Such 'Nyaya Panchaytis' provided justice to the common man in a cost-effective manner taking an impartial decision, maintaining social harmony and at the same time, reducing the burden of Courts.

Notably, this democratisation of the justice system and the age-old institutions of local self-governance was introduced in Mysuru by Raja Rishi Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar. Thanks to the efforts of the villagers of Lalithadripura, the 'Nyaya Sabhangana' or the 'Panchayti Katte' built by the late ruler has been restored.

Nestled below the iconic Chamundi Hill is Lalithadripura village which was formed by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar. The village is on the eastern side of the city and though there are many villages surrounding the heart of Mysuru that have completed a century, Lalithadripura is special as it was established by the Maharaja himself.

Iconic 'Nyaya Sabhangana'

Rituals such as homas and havanas were performed to mark the restoration. Apart from delivering justice to petty disputes where the village elders adjudicate problems amidst villagers at the 'Nyaya Sabhangana', or having discussions about village festivals and rituals, the place will also be used as a shelter for visitors who come to Lalithadripura from outside.

The 'Nyaya Sabhangana' has a huge hall inside, two rooms and a courtyard. At the front portion, there is a vacant space of more than 60 ft. The village celebrated its centenary in the year 2020 and to mark the occasion, they decided to renovate the 'Nyaya Sabhangana.'

LEGACY RESTORED: Villagers of Lalithadripura stand in front of the renovated 'Panchayti Katte.'

Speaking to Star of Mysore, former Chairman of Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) and a resident of Lalithadripura, L.R. Mahadevaswamy, said that the 'Nyaya Sabhangana' had reached a dilapidated state.

"The Mangaluru-tiled roof had been damaged and the walls had developed cracks. The wooden pillars that are the main attraction too had developed cracks and the places where the pillars joined the walls and the roof was shaky. The plastering had come off at many places along with limestone chips. We decided to restore the ancient structure and pooled in money," he said.

The conservation and restoration works were done in such a way that there is no lapse in the heritage structure and its many components. New design Mangaluru tiles were placed on the roof and the entire structure is sporting a new look, Mahadevaswamy added.

A well-planned village

Lalithadripura has 50 small and big streets and has been built in a well-planned manner with temples on the boundaries that protect the village, a primary school, four to five lakes and ponds around the village, a trading society and storage space for grains (Agevu).

The village is around eight kilometres from Mysuru and it has an area of over 3 kilometres. There are over 6,000 people living in this hinterland and the dominant communities are Veerashaivas, Vokkaligas, Vishwakarma and Dalits.

Earlier, the Panchayti (five village elders) used to meet every month and sometimes, the Maharaja would come all the way from Mysore Palace to chair Panchaytis (meetings), say the village elders.

Now, Lalithadripura comes under Chamarajanagar Parliamentary Constituency. The village has 12 Gram Panchayat (GP) Members and comes under Alanahalli Panchayat. It is governed by Srirampura Zilla Panchayat and belongs to the Varuna Assembly seat.

Those present during the inauguration of 'Nyaya Sabhangana' are Patel Gangadhar, Nadagowdaru Thammaiappa, former Alanahalli GP President Madappa, Huchchappaachari, M.B. Nayak, Lalithadripura Gowdru Madappa, Gowdru Somanna, Gowdru Ravi, Kalappa, Basavachari and others.

Nalwadi built Lalithadripura in 1926, says Raja Chandra

Reacting to the renovation of 'Nyaya Sabhangana' by the villagers of Lalithadripura to commemorate the centenary celebrations (that were held in 2020), member of the erstwhile Mysore royal family Raja Chandra told Star of Mysore that in fact, Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar built Lalithadripura in 1926.

Raja Chandra

Providing some original copies of the reports and extracts, Raja Chandra cited a report in The Hindu published on 16.11.1926 which said, "... the new model village, Lalitadripuram, near Mysore, established on the initiative and with the active sympathy and help of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, who formally opened it the other day. The experiment is one of historic importance because it indicates the immense possibilities of rural reconstruction if attempted properly."

Another report published in 'The Hindu' on 27.9.1926 says, "...His Highness has commended that this village should be laid out on modern sanitary lines equipped with all modern conveniences. It is stated the entire expenditure for reforming this village will be borne by His Highness himself."

In fact, when the model village of Lalithadripura was built, it became national news as evidenced by newspaper reports that took info from 'Artha Sathaka Patrika'. The Maharaja had entrusted the entire task of reconstruction of Lalithadripura to H. Narasinga Rao, Raja Chandra added, citing references.

WORD OF THE DAY

Wangle

Pronunciation: WANG-gul.
Meaning: Wangle means "to get (something) by trickery or persuasion." It can also mean "to adjust or manipulate for personal or fraudulent ends."
Origin: You may have noticed a striking resemblance between wangle and wrangle, both of which have a sense meaning "to obtain or finagle." But the two do not share a common history: wrangle is centuries older than wangle, and despite their overlap in both meaning and appearance, wangle is believed to have evolved separately by way of waggle, meaning "to move from side to side." (Wrangle, by contrast, comes from the Old High German word ringan, meaning "to struggle.") It's possible, though, that wangle saved the "obtain" sense of wrangle from the brink of obsolescence — until recent decades, this usage had all but disappeared, and its revival may very well have been influenced by wangle. We wish we could wangle conclusive evidence to support this theory, but alas!
Example: "Discussions of how to wangle free shipping or discounts dovetailed with a proposition that the group start a fund-raiser for a family in need — a worthy use for money saved." — Hannah Goldfield

THE ODD WORD

Wasm

An outdated policy, doctrine or theory.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Wag the Dog

Meaning: The phrase 'Wag the Dog' is used to indicate that attention is purposely being diverted from something of greater importance to something of lesser importance.
Origin: The term 'Wag the Dog' comes from expression that a dog is smarter than its tail, but if tail were smarter than the dog, the tail would be in control.
Example: "He's wagging the dog to keep you from discovering the truth about the car wreck."
